

NARBERTH Y. M. C. PLANS BIG IMPROVEMENT AND EXPANSION

PROPOSES A PLANT THE "YEAR ROUND HOME TOWN" WILL BE PROUD OF—INCLUDES AUDITORIUM, SWIMMING POOL,
ENLARGED GAME ROOMS AND MOTION PICTURES.

Narberth is essentially a young folks' town, abounding in both boy and girl youth, for whose welfare the community is responsible.

The local Y. M. C. A. is making a bold stroke to assure a proper place in Our Town where our youths may spend their spare time under good conditions and proper and expert supervision.

Now, Mr. Father and Mrs. Mother, you'll agree, won't you, that we have long needed just what is proposed?

And what boy just wouldn't like to have a "swim" right in his own "Y"?

The Association this year is operating under new officers: Mr. A. J. Loos, President; T. Noel Butler, Vice-President; W. N. Mills, Secretary, and Daniel Leitch, Treasurer, backed up by an energetic and enthusiastic Board of Directors.

These officers have been thinking big things for us and many months of thought, study and work have preceded the announcement of their large and worthwhile plans.

Nothing so practical and worthwhile has ever before been attempted in Narberth, and the support of the entire community is anticipated.

Imagine an auditorium seating six hundred, modern in every way, showing the best motion pictures several times a week, and available at other times for the meetings, parties and events of any association in Narberth!

Imagine a natatorium providing a "plunge" or "swim" for that tired feeling, or to consume the surplus energy of that boy of your or your neighbors', which must find vent in one direction or another!

Imagine a "Boosters" Club Room for men, and game rooms for men and boys separately, all under sufficient, proper and expert supervision!

Imagine, Mr. Bowler, four fine alleys for your tournaments!

Imagine the benefits of physical instruction by an expert in a refurnished gymnasium!

There isn't a thing contemplated in these plans but what Our Town needs, and needs badly, and nothing that is not possible in this community of ours with all its civic pride.

The admitted deficiencies of the Association in the past have been due mainly to a lack of interest and support on the part of the community, due in turn possibly to a lack of those features which appeal.

The contemplated plans, however, provide all possible desirable features, some of which will appeal directly to every one of our people.

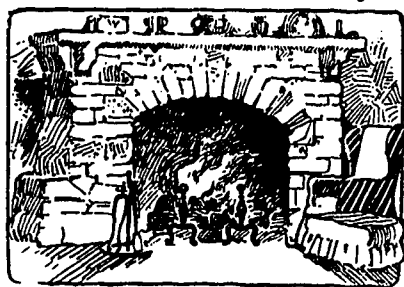

The success of this effort depends on you, our friend, and the Association feels confident your serious thought on the subject will lead to earnest support on your part.

The Association must go forward or go backwards. Either the enlarged effort must be made a reality or the buildings closed entirely, as present conditions cannot and must not continue.

To permit the closing of the Association would be a reproach on the community and a hurt to the welfare of our youth.

An active, influential and successful Association is an asset to the Town; to every property owner and to every business man in the community.

Let's rally to the effort and put it across—everyone together.

THE FIRESIDE

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Beginning with this week's issue, Our Town will be published once every two weeks instead of once every week, until matters so shape themselves as to admit our resuming the paper weekly. We are compelled to take this action owing to the large increased cost of newspaper production.

The Main Line was well represented in the big parade of the Knights Templar in Philadelphia last week.

Beulah George, who made her home with Mrs. Golze, of Maple avenue, has gone to Haskell Institute to take a commercial course.

Mr. F. A. Lanahan has given up his work of some years, in the management of trust estates and is now engaged in selling life insurance for the Provident Life and Trust Company of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Joseph and their little daughter Dolly have moved from 314 Woodbine avenue to a farm which they have leased in Strafford. Mr. Joseph is a former member of the U. S. Navy, although not a war veteran.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Prescott and daughter, Miss Ruth E. Prescott, are closing their home to spend a few weeks in September and October at their bungalow at Ocean City, where Miss Prescott will entertain several house parties.

The many friends of Dr. Romaine C. Hoffman, of 201 Forrest avenue, are congratulating him on winning the Republican nomination for Coroner of Montgomery County. There is little doubt as to Dr. Hoffman being elected, and no doubt at all concerning his fitness for the position.

The $100 Registered War Saving Certificates are selling for $84.00 during September at the Post Office. They mature at $100 in 1924. These certificates are registered at Washington, D. C., in the name of the purchasers or owners.

Surpassing the standard set by his last production, H. B. Warner has achieved more laurels in "The Pagan God," to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday. It is a story of China, its intrigues and subtleties, and shows Warner in the role of an American diplomat agent who risks his life among the Chinese plotters. The production was accomplished on a large scale. Entire Chinese streets had to be erected and hundreds of Chinamen were engaged to appear in the big scenes.

A cordial invitation is extended to all young people, both ladies and gentlemen, who are not identified with any other Sunday School to join the Young People's Bible Class at the Presbyterian Church every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, William Durbin, President, Madeline McCoy, Secretary and Treasurer, W. C. Poor, teacher. Strangers are very cordially invited and will receive a very warm welcome. A social evening once a month where strangers will have a good chance to get acquainted

EXPECT TO PLAY TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH THIS SATURDAY AFTERNOON

DECIDING CONTEST IN DOUBLES TOURNAMENT POSTPONED FROM LAST WEEK—SINGLES REACH SEMI-FINALS—CONSOLATION
MATCHES PROCEEDING AND MIXED DOUBLES START.

A slight accident to one of the players, which while it was not serious was sufficient to temporarily cripple him, made it necessary for the Tournament Committee to postpone the final match in the doubles tournament of the Narberth Tennis Association last Saturday, until to-day—Saturday, September 20. So unless something unforeseen happens—which always, nowadays, includes the gyrations of the Weather Man—whatever that may mean, Messrs. Shaw and Warwick, and Messrs. Kirkpatrick and Staples will meet at 2 o'clock this Saturday afternoon, to decide the doubles championship for the season of 1919. And all that we said last Saturday about this contest being a good one holds true in spite of the postponement.

In the meanwhile the singles tournament has been moving along and has now reached the semi-finals. In these two events, Mr. Warwick meets Mr. Van Aiken, and Mr. Kirkpatrick meets Mr. Newell, and the winners of these two matches will come together in the finals for the singles championship, which will probably be played next Saturday, September 27.

The consolation matches are nearing the finals, and during the past week the mixed doubles have started. The results of the matches played during the past week follow:

Singles.

Third round—Newell defeated Philler, 10-8, 6-1; Kirkpatrick defeated Shaw, 6-4, 6-2; Van Aiken defeated Cowin, 6-1, 6-3.

Mixed Doubles.

First round—Mr. Cowin and Miss Cowin defeated Mr. and Mrs. Watts, 2-6, 6-0, 7-5.

Singles Consolation.

First round—Watts won from Tompkins by default; DuBree defeated Fenno, 3-6, 6-1, 6-2; Thomas defeated Hartley, 6-0, 6-0; P. Redifer, Sr., defeated W. Harris, 6-3, 7-5; Donnelly defeated P. Redifer, Jr., 6-1, 6-1.

Second round—Krusc defeated Grace, 6-0, 6-3; Muschamp defeated Watts, 6-4, 6-2; Donnelly defeated P. Redifer, Sr., 6-1, 6-1.

Consolation Doubles.

Preliminary round—Schulte and Thomas defeated Watts and Redifer, Sr., 7-5, 6-3.

First round—Muschamp and Donnelly defeated Schulte and Thomas, 6-2, 7-5.

Second round—Muschamp and Donnelly defeated Burkhardt and Bailey, 6-3, 6-3.

Narberth Loses to Strawbridge & Clothier

Last Saturday afternoon at Sixty-third and Walnut streets, before a crowd of 3,000 persons, Strawbridge & Clothier defeated our local team in a close and interesting game, by the score of 1-0.

Pearson, one of Connie Mack's recruits, and who has been doing considerable pitching for the Athletics this season, pitched against Narberth, and with the exception of a hit made by Stites, none of our local boys were successful in making a safe hit.

Credit must be given our own Bill Durbin for the wonderful work which he did against the strong Strawbridge & Clothier aggregation, and had our boys been able to have made one or two hits at an opportune time, there is no question but that the Narberth team could have come away with the honors, as their playing was in every way equal to, if not better than the Strawbridge & Clothier team as far as field work was concerned.

LANDSDOWNE AND DOBSON TO PLAY AT S. & C. GROUNDS.

The second game for the Main Line League championship will be to-day, Lansdowne meeting the Dobson team on the Strawbridge & Clothier grounds at Sixty-third and Walnut streets, Philadelphia.

It was through Manager Rhoads, of Lansdowne, that these grounds were secured, and it was a wise move. The West Philadelphia diamond is one of the best in the city and ideal for a titular battle.

Ad Swigler, the Penn pitcher, will be in the box Saturday for Lansdowne against the East Falls nine.

The members and friends of the Y. M. C. A. are cordially invited to step into the building and inspect a very fine clock which has just been placed in the lobby. This clock was a gift to the Auxiliary, who in turn presented it to the Board of Directors.

We regret that we are unable at this time to divulge the names of the donors, owing to their dislike of publicity, and realizing as we all do the great necessity of a good clock in the Y. M. C. A. building, it is rather difficult to frame an acknowledgment in language sufficiently strong to express our appreciation of not only the gift, but the thought which prompted it. However, on behalf of the Women's Auxiliary and the Board of Directors we wish to publicly thank the two gentlemen who remembered us so beautifully.

HATFIELD IS VICTOR.

Montgomery Candidate for Commissioner Defeats Two Opponents.

There was a bitter fight in Montgomery County in an effort to defeat Roy A. Hatfield, of Norristown, for County Commissioner, but returns from more than one-half the districts give Hatfield a majority over William Pagginbotham, of Montclair, and William Warner Harper, from Springfield Township. The Republican organization backed Harper and Pagginbotham.

Harmont Beady, of Upper Moreland, was nominated by the Democrats for County Commissioner.

The Republicans nominated the following: County Controller, Horace W. Swedley; Register of Wills, Robert C. Miller; Recorder of Deeds, B. Paul Sheder; County Treasurer, Irvin H. Barden; Sheriff, Jacob Hamilton; District Attorney, Frank Remington; Clerk of Courts, J. Crawford Johnson; Coroner, Dr. Romaine C. Hoffman, of Narberth.

SPECIAL DELIVERY SERVICE.

This service is obtained by placing on any letter or articles of mail a special delivery stamp or ten cents' worth of ordinary stamps in addition to the lawful postage.

When ordinary stamps are used the words "Special Delivery" must be placed on the envelope or wrapper, directly below but never on the stamps, otherwise the letter or article will not be accorded special delivery service.

BACK TO SCHOOL.

This is the testing time for many a boy and girl. The lure of wages, the desire to go out into the world and do something, impatience with the slow grind of class work, the necessity of contributing to the family income—all these are motives that are working powers at this time of year on boys and girls. Fortunately Narberth is not as hard hit as many localities, but even in this up-to-date, progressive town there are boys and girls being deprived of an education.

To a large extent the boys and girls have this problem in their own hands. For the most part they must settle it themselves. We can only hope that most of them can be made to see that for themselves, and for the community the wise thing to do is to use Youth's Golden Hour to give everybody all the education possible.

One or two positive things the school can do is to help the boy and girl make the right decision. One is to make the Narberth school as attractive as possible. The prerequisite is a good faculty—teachers of marked ability, with big souls. We think we have a right to boast of this. Our Board has retained its strong faculty of last year, and is paying reasonable salaries. The other thing that every school should do is to help the boy and girl to decide to remain in school by giving educational opportunities of every sort, regardless of whether the opportunities sought are the "regular things" or not. Many a boy saved to the school by a good practical course in manual training or tinkering will profit by many other things that the school has to offer, and will continue his education.

The average parent can help by discarding the idea he is far likely to hold that "what was good enough for me and my father is good enough for my boy." It isn't. The world moves. The parent who nowadays deliberately lets his child leave school is practically condemning him to a life of failure. The fact that a few emerge without education must not blind us to the fact that there are thousands of young men and women who have the finest natural qualities and never can rise because of lack of education. Some of this the youth can be told, that we are soon coming to the point in this country, if we are not already there, when the boy and girl without at least a High School education will be hopelessly handicapped.

Certainly every boy and girl in Narberth should have as a minimum a High School education.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Citizens interested in keeping up the reputation of Narberth as a wide-awake, beautiful and homelike town, might be interested in the following:

The billboards and several store windows of this borough usually—I might say invariably—carry notices long since obsolete. Even the post office is not altogether free from this anachronism. Such a thing might be expected in a "one-horse" village or even in the cheerless tenement section of a big city. But for a live community like Narberth to continue to advertize meetings held long ago, is simply ridiculous!

Every resident ought to appoint himself or herself a committee of one to remove these relics of antiquity.

The only exception should be posters containing information of current value in addition to the obsolete notices of events, such as those advertising the American Legion. It would be better, however, if these posters also were destroyed and replaced by up-to-date ones.

Little things go a long way toward increasing or decreasing a community's self-respect, and visitors always notice the "fine touches." Another indication of "fuzzy-mindedness" in this town is the common practice of throwing waste paper on the avenues or sidewalks.

Commissioner Charles Humphreys, I am sure, would bear witness to the fact that the two squares or so from the post office in any direction are frequently littered with remnants of mail discarded by careless individuals. And this, too, despite the tireless efforts of our efficient street cleaners.

One thing more, and then I am through. I have heard much from time to time concerning plans for a memorial to the service men of Narberth, but it appears to be as vague as a mid-summer's dream in November. Can anyone enlighten me on this subject?

SPARTACUS.

AN APOLOGY.

In last week's issue of Our Town there appeared, in a letter sent to the Editor, an article referring to a "builder" who is a resident of our borough. The Editor sincerely regrets that the purpose and meaning of this article was misunderstood, as no harm nor criticism was intended by the writer of the article in question.

He has contributed to Our Town for many months past, and simply dwelt upon this matter in his usual good-natured way, with absolutely no intent to harm our good fellow-townsmen.

The Editor is extremely sorry that this article should have given offense and offers his sincere apology.

Boy Scout News

Carl Cramer certainly had a hard time passing his bird study test. Poor Carl got up at 4.30 A. M. one morning to hunt around for ten different species of birds, but could only find seven. How he manufactured the other three I don't know, for he stayed at camp for another week, presumably to hunt around for those other three birds.

Merritt Davis also stayed another week. You can't tell much about Merritt, but I think the reason he stayed another week was to earn enough points to get a C. D., so that he can join the Unami tribe. Merritt looks at Carl Cramer's merit badges with a good deal of envy, although he is not far behind Carl, and I fully believe before another year is up he will be up with them.

Carl and Merritt are the pride of the troop, as they are covered with achievement medals won by good, hard work and study.

Harold Baum seemed to be having a good time, but as he was to leave camp a day earlier, owing to a trip planned with his father to go to Kenosha, Wisconsin, on Saturday, August 16, he could not take up the work for points, as he knew he couldn't finish in time, so he was content in the work of learning how to wash dishes and peel potatoes.

Palmer Swartz was another water rat. You could always find him around the boats. One day when Palmer was on duty at the table he seemed to get to feeling bad just before his turn came to washing the dishes. So I thought the best thing to do was to confine him to his tent for the rest of the day, as I did not want to take chances. He stayed there all right, but looked longingly at the boys when they left to go boating. He seemed to be all right when night came, so I told him to get tucked in his cot, so he would be all right for the morrow, which he did, and never was sick again that week.

George Stanley seemed to be enjoying himself every minute, but when it came to taking tests for merit badges he felt that he would rather study them and help Carl win his Eagle Scout badge than to work for himself. We are hoping that George will continue in his Scout work, for he is pretty far advanced, and with just a little more interest could fill his arm sleeve with a good many honors.

Grave," in the Baptist Church at Bryn Mawr. You are cordially invited.

Church Notes.

A handsome Vincent piano was last week added to the equipment of our Sunday School.

Rally Day will be observed in this church Sunday, October 12, with appropriate services throughout the day. A great rally will be held.

Next Sunday evening, the 28th, we will hold a Demobilization Service, when our service flag will be taken down. Mr. George Braden will make the address on the subject, "The Call of the Hour."

Our Bible School has recently received a handsome endowment in memory of our formerly beloved Superintendent, Mr. Harry S. Hopper.

The services last Sunday were very well attended and the enthusiasm was inspiring. Considering the Divine favors that have been bestowed upon the American people and Narberth in particular, our churches should be crowded with worshippers. Let us all go to church. You will be welcome with us.

GOVERNMENT SURPLUS FOOD.

Consignments of the food recently ordered at the post office are arriving. Notice will be given each purchaser when their order or a portion of it is ready.

THE LOTTERY

By a Rising Young Narberth Authoress

"I'm going to make a confession." Mary's eyes widened.

"As you know, I am a woman-hater; but, as you probably don't know, I, like other men, have a dream-woman. In some ways, you remind me of her. I want you to write to me the kind of letters you would write to the man you love."

"Oh, I couldn't!" Mary murmured. "I wouldn't know how."

Arnold laughed. "My dear, anyone with an imagination can write a love letter. You have already proved your imagination by coming here tonight."

"You, too, must have idealized someone. Write to me as you would to him."

Then, seeing her hesitate, "Cheer up!" he said grimly, "as you reminded me a short time ago, you probably won't have to write for long!"

"Oh, that wasn't it. I was afraid I—I—oh, oh, I don't know what," protested the girl.

"It won't be hard, Mary. Just write of the little every-day things that go to make up life, with just now and then a dash of love, so that I may fool myself into thinking there's someone at home who cares."

And Mary, looking up into the eyes of this big, lonesome man, said solemnly, "I will."

On the eve of his departure Arnold and Mary were quietly married, with Dal and Arnold's servant, Rhoda, as witnesses.

Mary and Day were now comfortably ensconced in Arnold's apartment, with Rhoda to look after them and to see that all went well.

To this plan Mary had at first demurred. But, seeing how much Arnold wished it, and realizing how much more time it would enable her to give to her writing, she had finally consented.

And now he was gone.

How wonderful he had been to her and Dal. Why had he been so kind! She blushed to think what a little fool she must have seemed that night she had asked him to marry her!

She looked about the cozy room. How good he had been and he had asked nothing in return—not even a kiss. She wished he had asked that; but perhaps he didn't want to kiss her. She wondered how long it would be before the promised letter would come. He was to write first and she was to answer in kind. She could hardly—with some of the best young people in the borough. Come one, come all and prove the statement.

Mr. H. E. Armstrong, operating the Main Line Automobile Laundry and Garage, who has recently taken over the Walton property and business, is very much pleased with our borough. The extensive improvements made by him at the old Walton corner are much needed improvements to this section, and Mr. Armstrong is planning to make further improvements to the corner in the near future. This is one of the newest industries in Narberth, and with the able management of Mr. Armstrong, who has installed modern equipment and system throughout, the business promises to be quite an asset to Narberth. In any business where a town benefits by such improvements as Mr. Armstrong is making, should receive hearty support from the residents of the community.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
